ARTIST REVIEWS

"Baptized By The Mud is a masterful musical journey which will leave the listener in awe with its sincere vocals, lyrical genius, and class musicians."

Clive Rawlings (Blues Matters! 2014)

"There's a truly unique sound found in Baptized by the Mud. Danser showcases her perfectly round and low vocals as well as her passion for slide guitar."

Liz Lohnes – Blues Rock Review (USA)

"For this scribbler, the highlight of the night was the discovery of Edmonton's self-styled Swamp Blues Queen Kat Danser, a woman with a commanding presence, powerful and expressive voice and a deft touch on guitar and other stringed instruments. In a word, her performance glistened."

*David Farrell – FYI Music
Massey Hall's 25th Anniversary of the Women's Blues Revue*

"Gorgeously produced by Steve Dawson, Kat Danser's new release, Baptized By The Mud, offers a gloriously refreshing combination of acoustic blues and gospel stitched together by the sort of seamless groove you might expect from a soundtrack curated by T Bone Burnett."

Alan Kellogg (Penguin Eggs 2014)

"Baptized by the Mud is, quite simply put, a masterful musical journey that should have no problem leaving you with a sense of awe. Danser's sweet vocals, lyrical genius and instrumental prowess is the kind of music that is far, far too rare."

John Vermilyea – Blues Underground Network

"... paying respect to the past and doing her part to take music forward. Baptized by the Mud is sonically gorgeous with a glowing mix of stringed instruments from Danser and album producer, Steve Dawson."

Roger Levesque – Edmonton Journal

"... conjures the deep blues of more southern climes – if not the very Crossroads where the blues began – Danser proves a talent that doesn't come along often."

Eric Thom – Maverick UK
